DIRECTIONS Role play each scenario twice. The first time solve the problem in an unprofessional but realistic way. Then STOP the scene and REWIND to the beginning. Role play the scenario again with a different ending using professional behavior. You need to have at least two actors, a mentor or teacher and student. You also need a director/narrator who sets up the scenario and says STOP and REWIND. You may add other characters as needed. Everyone must have a role.

Scenario One

You are at site and another student from your school says, "Let's go smoke cigarettes during break." How do you handle it?

---

Scenario Two

You are at your site and one of your classmates picks a fight with you while you are trying to work. (Bleep out bad words.) How do you handle it?

---

---

---

---

Scenario Three

You are at your site and there is some "down" time. You have finished the task you were given and there is not a teacher or mentor around. How do you handle it?

---

---

---

---

Scenario Four

You are at your site and your mentor asks you to help clean out the dumpster (or clean a toilet, vomit off of the floor, etc...), a task you find appalling. How do you handle it?
