DIRECTIONS: Use the reflections you wrote about your site, your research, and your interview(s) to help you write the Organizational Structures paper. Your paper should be complete with each section from the list below. The paper should be 2-3 pages in length.

Introduction

(1–2 paragraphs from research and your own reflections)

- Introduce the organization's goals and mission and people you interviewed.

Body

(3–4 paragraphs from research and interviews)

- What is the history of the site?
- How is the site organized?
- What did you find out during the interviews? (Suggestion: you may want to write about these one at a time)
- How do you fit into the organization?

Conclusion

(2–3 paragraphs from your reflections and interviews)

- Tell a short story about an experience you had at your site.
- Use your reflections to write a summary of your thoughts about your site and what you have learned thus far.
