Describing Two Situations

Name:_____ Date:_____

DIRECTIONS Write about the two situations outlined below, one paragraph each. You can choose to write about any situation that happened in your life, even about something that happened at site. Make sure to write stories that you are comfortable sharing with the class.

Situation One Describe, in a paragraph, a time when you asked a question effectively at the right time or of the right person, which ended in a positive result for you. Give enough details so that someone understands your story.

Paragraph _____

Situation Two Describe a time when you didn't ask a question effectively or you asked incorrectly of the wrong person, which ended in a negative or no result for you. Give enough details so that someone understands your story.
